106th Indian Science Congress

The 106th Edition of Indian Science Congress (ISC), India's oldest and the most prestigious scientific event was successfully concluded from 3-7 January 2019 at the sprawling complex of Lovely Professional University, Phagwara, Punjab. The annual meet of Indian Science Congress has been witnessing a unique confluence of the scientific fraternity who share the platform to discuss the key issues pertaining to various streams of science and technology. The recommendations resulting out of the brainstorming offer a framework for development of science in general and the National Science Policy, in particular.

Pride of India (PoI) Expo

"Pride of India" (PoI) Expo, is the Mega Science Exhibition showcasing the cutting-edge technologies, leading scientific products and services, path breaking R&D initiatives, schemes and achievements of India's foremost and leading public and private sectors, central and state government departments, research labs, educational institutions, corporate, defence etc. Apart from thousands of national and international delegates, prominent R&D heads, policy makers, bureaucrats, senior scientists, ICT & allied industry leaders, technocrats & academicians, innovators, entrepreneurs, social activists, top executives from corporate & industry, the PoI Expo was visited by thousands of fervent students and general public during 3 to 7 January 2019.

The PoI Expo was spread over an area of approx 20,000 sqm with the participation of over 150 organizations. The expo depicted confluence of new ideas, innovations and products covering the entire canvas of scientific world. It was a splendid display of cutting-edge technologies, leading scientific products and services, path breaking R&D initiatives and achievements of India's foremost and leading public and private sector, government departments, PSUs, research labs, educational institutions, corporate, defence etc. Shri V. P. Singh Badnore, Hon'ble Governor of Punjab and Dr. Harsh Vardhan, Hon'ble Union Minister for Science and Technology and Earth Sciences spent considerable time in the expo and applauded the efforts of exhibitors for putting up such knowledgeable stalls/pavilions in the 106th ISC PoI Expo. The PoI Expo received overwhelming response from scientists, policy makers, delegates, students, general public etc.

Shri V. P. Singh Badnore, Hon'ble Governor of Punjab and Dr. Harsh Vardhan, Hon'ble Union Minister for Science and Technology and Earth Sciences inaugurated the Pol Expo on 3rd January 2019 in the presence of dignitaries, delegates and a large number of students. They subsequently visited the expo spending considerable time interacting with the exhibitors. The dignitaries keenly watched the latest technological advancements made in various sectors by DRDO, CSIR, ICMR, DST, MoES, GSI, DAE, ISRO, DBT, ICAR etc. They also visited Stalls put up by states of Gujarat, Assam, Bihar, Haryana etc. They appreciated tremendous efforts put up by all the exhibitors and the pains they took in explaining enthusiastic visitors.
